Director's Notes...

For the past two years I have been honored in serving as the Editor of the Heritage.

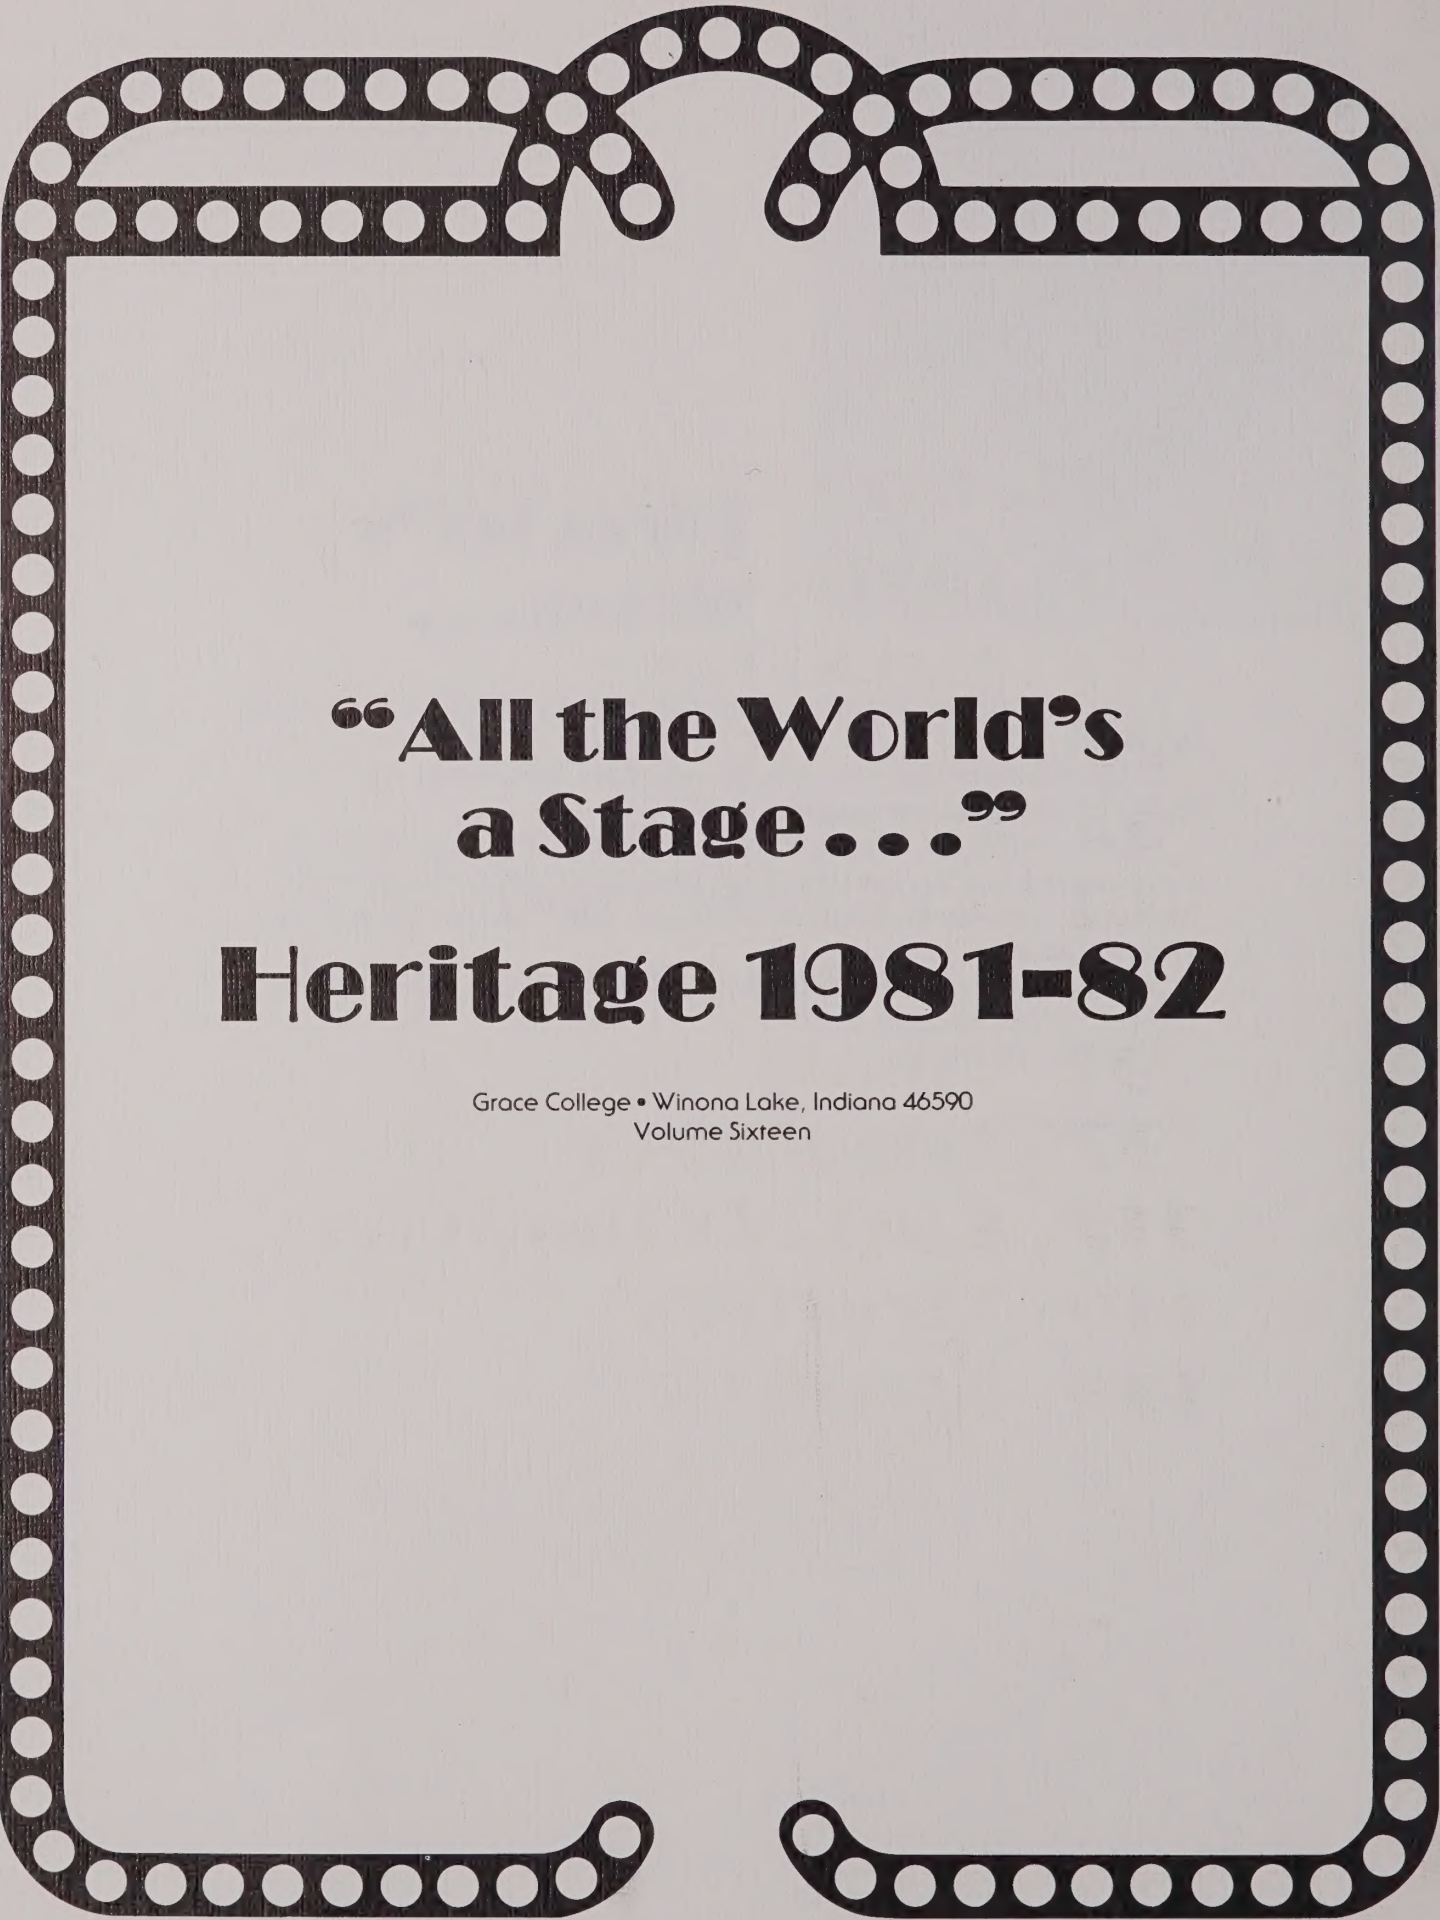

I have to admit it has been quite an education. The Lord has been truly faithful in spite of our weaknesses.

Through the help of a dedicated staff and many long hours, I feel that you are going to enjoy the following pages. As you page through these memories, I am sure that you will recall many other fond memories of your years at Grace.

As we combined these photos, facts, and figures for your remembrance, we kept you, the student, in mind.

Enjoy your memories.

Auditions

An enthusiastic 3rd west chorus cheers on their Beta boys.

A REcord number of freshmen were introduced to the student body this fall. Graciation, a new alternative to initiation, combined the imaginative dramatic talents of the sophomore class and the music of Pete Carlson in an evening of fun and fellowship between the freshmen and sophomores.

Two weeks later the Freshman Family, as it became known, supported their team in a losing effort as the sophomores soundly defeated them in an unprecedented Derby Bowl.

Dedicated freshmen brave the cold to watch the Derby Bowl.

Pete Carlson in concert.

REHEARSALS

Behind every moment of glory are hours of practice. Whether it be sports or music, road ministry teams or local ministries, practice is an essential ingredient. Often we watch outstanding performances without thinking about all the practice behind them. Individuals must practice on their own to make the team effort run smoothly. Yes, practice is hard work, but almost anyone who has had their moment of glory will say that it is worth it all.

N. Tress and J. Wroughton in "Diary of Anne Frank."

STUDENT LIFE

Student life at Grace College involves much more than just meets the eye.

College is a time of studies and learning, but is also a time of socialization, spiritual emphasis, and many organizations, creating responsibility.

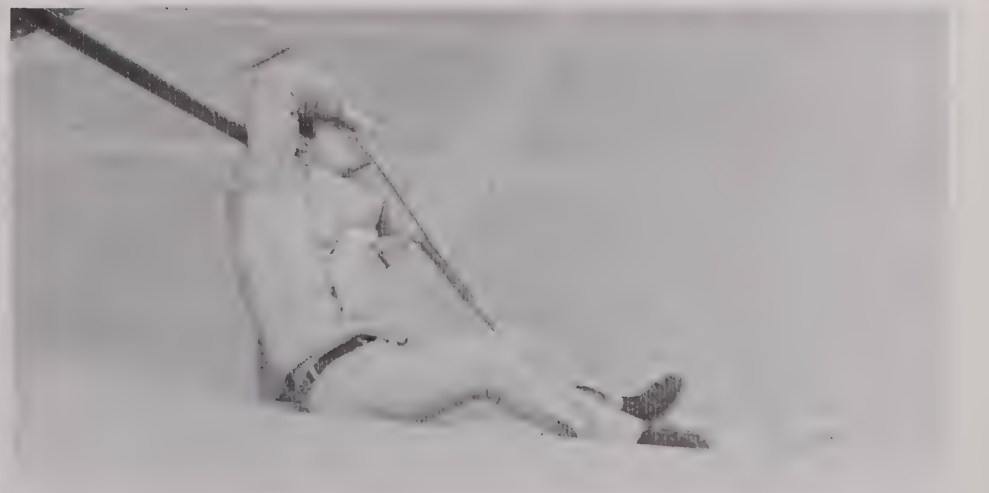

Of course, at G.C. there is an emphasis placed upon chapel. Many different speakers from all over come in and speak to the student body in different ways.

Sports are integrated as a vital time of growing together and working for a unique cause.

Dramas and music groups were used to spread God's word.

This year was the "Year of Crutches." It seemed as if it was "Preppy" to be on crutches, or at least the "in" thing to do.

Student life is important and essential for growth, and is usually well-taken or participated in.

THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK

Hitler's rise to power in Germany spelled death to millions of people unfortunate enough to bear the brunt of his hatred. By the end of the war, over twelve million people had been exterminated by the Nazis. Half of those people were Jews.

The Grace College fall production, "The Diary of Anne Frank," related the story of eight Jews caught in the midst of the turmoil. Forced into hiding, where they remained for over two years, the Frank family and the Tan Daan family were discovered and eventually met death in a Nazi concentration camp. This stirring drama vividly portrayed man's inhumanity to man and the sustaining strength that comes from faith in God.

1981 HOMECOMING

A Mexican Fiesta was the theme for Homecoming 1981. A "trip" to Mexico made a special occasion for the crowning of the queen. Ginger Schneider had the privilege of reigning as the 1981 Homecoming Queen. Her court consisted of Senior Attendants, Laurie Schumacher, Brenda Benson; Junior Attendant, Becky Male; Sophomore Attendant, Sue Bauer; and Freshman Attendant, Amy Winkler. Danny Gaither provided the entertainment for the evening.

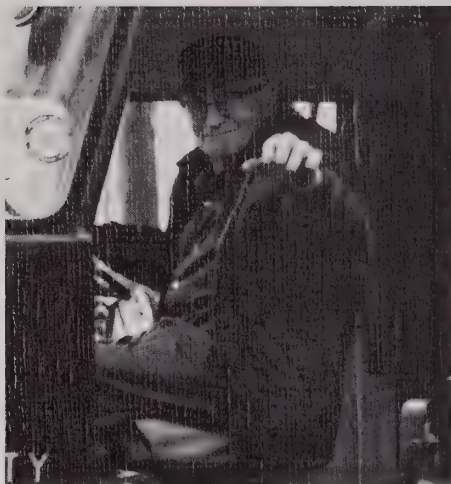

The Fiesta continued as Grace College held the annual homecoming parade. The theme was carried throughout as each class participated in building a float for competition. Each class was well represented with the Sophomore Class having the winning float.

Both the soccer team and the volleyball team displayed great ability for the homecoming spectators. The volleyball team was unsuccessful in their efforts while the soccer team won 6-1 over St. Joseph.

The homecoming and parent's weekend closed with flair by having the traditional homecoming banquet. A Mexican feast was served. The festivities were brought to a conclusion by an inspiring concert by Billy Speer.

"Nothing better than home cooked food."

"It's a home run (doesn't he wish)."

FALL RETREAT

The intramural program gives students the opportunity to play volleyball, basketball and softball in their spare time. This not only provides exercise, but also a chance to meet new people and have a good time.

CHAPELS & DAY OF PRAYER

Chapels, conferences and Spring day of prayer all added to the spiritual emphasis during the year at Grace. Special speakers were brought in to evoke a growing emphasis, and members of the faculty and staff also spoke to the students.

The Spring Day of Prayer held three chapel services and a lot of personal time to spend alone with God. Each chapel service, conference, and day of prayer had special meaning and aided in the students growing together spiritually.

PREPARATION FOR THE WORLD

Many ministry teams traveled out from Grace College to spread the Word of God, and to strengthen Christians in the United States. First, those students had to prepare themselves spiritually for this endeavor.

Different chapels, day of prayer and a variety of sessions helped preparation not to be a chore, but an exciting learning process.
